Author Visit

Matthew Janzen, author of State of Craft Beer, joins us to share his experiences. Matthew grabbed his camera, and hit the roads of Wisconsin to learn about the craft beer scene. Two years later he published a book-produced entirely in Wisconsin-about the hard-working brewing community, and all the industries in the state that keep it buzzing with excitement. After his presentation at the library, Matthew invites everyone to join him for a reception at White Stag. White Stag will be offering a special Wisconsin beer sampler special for participants.
